

It provides you with the freedom to cover up to 32 loved ones with cover of up to R100 000 at an affordable premium (cover for children is subject to legislative limits). The policy has a six-month waiting period, paying out within 48 hours of receipt of all claim documentation. Premium skip provides a reprieve in tough financial times by allowing you to choose to skip a month's premium once a year and accumulate up to 6 premium skips for when you need them most.

Other benefits offered at an additional premium include:

- The Tombstone Benefit which pays a lump sum amount if you (the Principal Life Assured) or your spouse covered under this benefit, passes away. The benefit provides a payout to the value of R10 000.
- Double Accident benefit will pay double the chosen funeral sum assured. In the event of an accidental death, the benefit will pay the Funeral Benefit as well as the Double Accident Benefit, to a R100 000 aggregate maximum.
- Paid-Up benefit ensures that once the policyholder reaches their 65th birthday (the Principal Life Assured) will no longer be required to pay any premiums, but the policy will remain in place.
- Inkomo Cash Benefit. This benefit pays a lump sum amount in addition to the Funeral Cover (and Tombstone Benefit if selected). It will pay simultaneously with a Funeral Cover claim.
- The Cash Back Bonus (10% of premiums received) is paid to you on the fifth policy anniversary, and every policy anniversary thereafter provided that the policy remains active.
- Value-Adds Benefit helps with immediate and support expenses for planning the funeral.
