Election of shop stewards

Shop stewards serve for a period of four years in terms of the PSA Statute. The term of office of shop stewards expired on 31 March 2020, but elections could not take place owing to COVID-19. The PSA's Board of Directors resolved that, owing to COVID-19 lockdown measures, shop stewards who were in office on the said date should continue with their activities so as not to interrupt any of the members' rights or the activities of the PSA in the workplace. It is, however, important to finalise the election process as soon as possible.

Members were requested to provide nominations for the various shop steward positions, in both Head Office and the Pretoria Region. However, owing to lockdown measures, the election process could not be finalised and it was decided by the PSA Pretoria Provincial Office to avail a fresh opportunity to members to nominate shop stewards. The service of shop stewards towards their constituencies is voluntary, though shop stewards are trained on various aspects such as labour law, negotiations, disciplinary hearings, etc.

In order to elect a team of shop stewards as soon as possible, your nomination for shop stewards should be sent to Molefe Mosaka at molefe.mosaka@psa.co.za to reach him not later than 30 November 2020. Should there be more nominations than the number of shop steward positions available, elections will have to take place, and such will be arranged after the closing date. If any member wishes to nominate another member, such to-be-nominated member has to provide his/her consent along with the nomination. Members can also nominate themselves for the shop steward positions.

The following outgoing team of shop stewards has indicated their availability for re-election:

- Johanna Ndhlovu – Head Office (CGO)
