

CHAIRMAN of Sekunjalo and Independent Media Dr Iqbal Survé, received an award during The Future of Jobs Summit, T20 South Africa 2025 at the DP World Wanderers Stadium. | ITUMELENG ENGLISH Independent Newspapers

FAMILY and friends of Cornal Hendricks, were overcome with grief during an emotional memorial service held at Boland Stadium in Wellington. | ARMAND HOUGH Independent Newspapers

THOUSANDS of walkers took part in the Suncoast East Coast Radio Big Walk along Durban's beachfront on Sunday, tackling 5km and 10km routes from uShaka Marine World to People's Park at Moses Mabhida Stadium. The annual event, supported by the Saturday Star's sister paper, the Daily News as a media partner, brought together families, fitness enthusiasts and corporate teams in a show of community spirit. | DOCTOR NGCOBO Independent Media

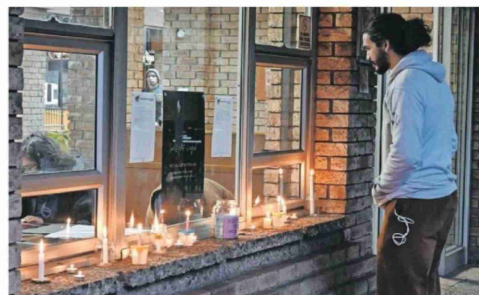

LEARNERS, parents, and political parties protested outside Soshanguve South Secondary School on Wednesday, demanding the principal's resignation after a viral video showed pupils being beaten with broomsticks by alleged community policing forum members. | OUPA MOKOENA Independent Newspapers

POLICE officers raid Diepkloof hostel in Soweto following violent protests that claimed two lives. The unrest, sparked by poor living conditions, also led to the looting of food and alcohol from passing trucks. | ITUMELENG ENGLISH Independent Newspapers

The week that was

A MEMORIAL service was held on Wednesday at Prince Mshiyeni Memorial Hospital for intern doctor Alulutho Mazwi, who died while on duty last week. The Public Servants Association (PSA) held a picket outside the hospital, blaming systemic failures and workplace abuse for her death. The KZN Health Department has suspended her supervisor, and the Health Ombud has launched an investigation. | AYANDA NDAMANE Independent Media

CAPE Town LEAP officers conducted a stop-and-search operation in Hanover Park on Saturday. During the operation, ShotSpotter technology detected gunfire in the area, and three people were reported shot. | AYANDA NDAMANE Independent Media