The Public Servants Association (PSA) as the largest affiliates of Federation of South African Unions (Fedusa) has noted Fedusa's decision to dismiss the Federation's General Secretary, Dr Dennis George. This follows allegations of impropriety in acquiring shares in Ayo Technology Solutions.

The PSA, whilst respecting both the decision Fedusa and the rights of Dr George, expressed the trust that all fair process were followed in reaching this conclusion. The PSA also noted the efforts of Fedusa's Acting General Secretary, Mrs Riefda Ajam, in ensuring that operations in Fedusa continue. while this matter was being resolved.

The PSA expressed the wish that the appointment of a new General Secretary of the Federation be finalised since Dr George was in any case about to retire, the delay in the NEC to finalise this matter with the same vitality is encouraged. We hope combined efforts aimed at the protection and promotion of the rights and interests of workers will continue with even greater vigour.
