The Public Servants Association (PSA) acknowledges and congratulates Mr Sonja Josiah Ntuli on his appointment as the newly appointed Mpumalanga Director of Public Prosecution (DPP).

Mr Ntuli was appointed by the President of South Africa and brings with him 29 years of experience as an attorney and prosecutor. He has served in the NPA for 21 years in various capacities, including as Regional Court Prosecutor and Assistant Director of Public Prosecutions. His extensive knowledge of the NPA positions him well to lead the Mpumalanga office with integrity and effectiveness.

Having previously served as the acting DPP in Mpumalanga for nearly three years, Mr Ntuli possesses the necessary skills and experience to address the challenges faced by the province. The PSA is confident that under his leadership, the NPA in Mpumalanga will uphold justice and restore public trust in the legal system.

The PSA wishes Mr Ntuli success in his new role and looks forward to seeing him lead the NPA in Mpumalanga with integrity, commitment, and a focus on excellence at all levels of the organisation.
