The Public Servants Association (PSA), representing public sector employees and a leading organisation in the promotion and support for the welfare of the South African National Defence Force (SANDF) members, expresses its deepest condolences to the families and colleagues of the five SANDF members who lost their lives following a fire at the SANDF Training Centre in Lohatla, Northern Cape.

The PSA extends their prayers to with the families of the fallen soldiers during this difficult time. These dedicated individuals have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to the nation and PSA honours their commitment, bravery, and selflessness.

The safety and well-being of SANDF members is of paramount importance and the PSA recognises the risks they take daily in fulfilling their contractual obligations. The PSA extends support to the SANDF leadership as they investigate the incident thoroughly and take appropriate measures to prevent similar tragedies in the future.
