FOR PSA MEMBERS: FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING COLLEGES (FETC)

21-02-2019

Update: Strike action at Colleges

The previous edition of the Informus on this matter refer. It has been brought to the PSA's attention that its members are intimidated and denied access to their work stations at Colleges by striking employees. The PSA respects the rights of the striking employees but condemns the alleged violence by striking employees.

Members should note that the PSA has alerted the employer about the victimisation and intimidation by striking employees. The PSA has demanded that the employer discharges its duties to ensure the safety of its members. Furthermore, the employer needs to ensure that no deduction will be implemented from PSA members' salary as results of them not being able to report for duty owing to the violence and intimidation by striking employees.

Members will be informed of developments.
