PSA suffers a great loss: Tribute to Ephraim Makama

It is with great sadness that the PSA has learned of the passing of one of its shop stewards Mr Ephraim Makama.

Mr Makama is survived by his wife and 7 children. Mr Makama was employed by the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) in the logistics unit at the Hallmark building. He became a PSA shop steward in 1998 and was a PSA shop steward until the time of his demise. Mr Makama served as a PSA shop steward with dedication and loyalty and he was one of the best recruiters for the PSA within the Home Affairs. During his tenure in the PSA, he represented the PSA within various committees such as the wellness committee in the Hallmark DHA building. Additionally, Mr Makama also assisted members with grievances and complaints lodged against the employer.

The PSA has lost a comrade, a brother and a true unionist. Long live the spirit of Ephraim Makama, long live.
