Update: Adjustment of medical-aid subsidy

Members will recall that PSCBC Resolution 2/2015 makes provision for the adjustment of medical assistance for in-service employees who belong to the Government Employees Medical Scheme (GEMS) and all former employees on all medical schemes, in accordance with the Medical Price Index (MPI) adjustment for a particular year, which will be adjusted w.e.f 1 January of each year .

The Department of Public Service and Administration issued a circular on 31 January 2022 on the adjustment of medical subsidy of 6.42% with effect from 1 January 2022. The circular is attached for ease of refence.

The PSA wants to take this opportunity to wish all employees who are unwell owing to COVID-19 a safe and speedy recovery.

Dear Mr De Bruin

RE: ADJUSTMENT OF MEDICAL SUBSIDY FOR PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES

This serves to inform you that the 2022 adjustment for employees on Government Employees Medical Scheme (GEMS) and all former employees belonging to a registered medical scheme has been increased by 6.42 % as per the PSCBC Resolution 2 of 2015.

PERSAL will make the necessary adjustment with effect from the 1 January 2022.

Kind regards

Ms Ypliswa Makhasi
