

FOR PSA MEMBERS: LIMPOPO GAMBLING BOARD (LGB)

29-06-2023

What is happening at Limpopo Gambling Board?

Continuation of wage negotiations

Members are aware that the PSA tabled wage demands for negotiation on 19 May 2023. This was followed by the first round of negotiations on 19 June 2023. The PSA tabled opening demands of a 13%-salary increase, increase of the danger allowance amounting to CPI plus 1%, housing allowance, and cellphone allowance respectively and the implementation of a car allowance of R5 000 for all qualifying employees.

The employer presented an opening offer of a 7.5%-salary increase, which was rejected by the PSA. Parties agreed that the employer representatives will go back to the Board for a refreshed mandate and will report back on 28 June 2023. Unfortunately, the meeting of 28 June 2023 could not proceed owing to the unavailability of members and it was agreed that the meeting will be rescheduled to 5 July 2023, where the employer will report back from the Board.

Members will be informed of developments.
