Tribute: Comrade Lovemore Mkhonza – PHSDSBC Shop Steward

It is with heavy hearts that the PSA received the news of the passing of the Unions dedicated shop steward, Comrade Lovemore Mkhonza, who passed away on 8 August 2023.

Comrade Lovemore was born on 1 January 1976, and contributed his talents to the Mpumalanga Department of Health. His affiliation with the PSA commenced on 31 March 2010, he was elected as the shop steward, a role he embraced with passion. He extended his commitment to the Provincial Structure of PHSDSBC in the PSA, where he served wholeheartedly. Notably, his dedication led to him being elected as a Full-Time Shop Steward for an impressive four consecutive years.

Mr. Mkhonza's devotion to the PSA was unwavering, and he dedicated his life to advocating for the rights and interests of PSA members in their workplaces. His contributions to the PSA were invaluable, and his enthusiasm excelled through his active participation in various processes. Comrade Lovemore was known for his outspoken nature and fearlessly expressing his thoughts. His absence will be deeply felt by all of us, especially the resonance of his voice as he sang revolutionary songs.

The PSA's Provincial Office in Nelspruit extends its gratitude for the tireless efforts Comrade Lovemore invested in the service of the PSA over the years.

To honour the memory of our dear departed Comrade Lovemore, a Memorial Service has been arranged:

Date: 11 August 2023

Time: 10h00

Venue: Embhuleni Hospital

Funeral Arrangements will be announced in the memorial service.

Rest in peace our Leader, a great soul never dies. The PSA salutes you.
