FOR PSA MEMBERS: NATIONAL HOME BUILDERS REGISTRATION COUNCIL (NHBRC)

02-03-2023

PSA welcomes NHBRC employees

The PSA's Board of Directors recently approved for the PSA to officially broaden the Union's membership scope to include the National Home Builders Registration Council. Founded on 7 July 1920 with a vision of protecting and promoting the rights and interests of workers, the PSA is proud of its many accomplishments in trade unionism and being instrumental in advancing the ever-changing labour movement.

Why join the PSA?

1. The PSA is a growing Union with 235 000+ members served by Provincial Offices across the country
2. The PSA is an non-political union with no political affiliation
3. Attends to members' individual disputes without extra charge
4. Negotiates fair terms of remuneration and represents members' interests in bargaining structures
5. Addresses issues such as fair and reasonable working conditions, hours of work, and leave
6. Protects members' service benefits, i.e., medical aid, pension, and housing subsidies
7. Promotes members' interests during collective bargaining in bargaining forums with employers
8. Acts only on members' mandate (mandates on collective issues are obtained from member structures)
9. The PSA issued a magazine and workplace-specific newsletters to members at no extra charge

Enjoy exclusive PSA member benefits

1. The PSA offers free financial assistance with funeral costs at the death of a member
2. Make your short-left dream trip a reality by lay-buying your holiday through the PSA Travel Club
3. Free membership of PSACLUB
4. Join thousands of members who are enjoying discount coupons for leading shops such as Dischem Pharmacies, Checkers, Checkers Hyper, Shoprite, and Pick n Pay
5. Visit the PSA Holiday Resort at discounted rates
