PSA members invited to open day to celebrate 105 years of PSA legacy

The PSA Provincial Office in Pietermaritzburg will be celebrating 105 years of the PSA's legacy in delivering service excellence to members and acknowledge the milestones, legacy, and achievements of the PSA. The celebration will be in the form of an open day, scheduled as follows:

Date: 7 July 2025

Time: 09:00 - 14:00

Venue: Department of Community Safety and Liaison (Pietermaritzburg)

This event aims to increase the visibility of the Union, grow the PSA membership in a provincial department by launching a recruitment drive, promote unity and uphold the values of PSA. Business partners were invited, with distribution of goodies to new members. A general meeting will take place at 13:00, followed by refreshments and cutting of the cake.
