New Medical Interns and Community Service Practitioners: Join the PSA Today!

The PSA congratulates the 625 newly appointed health professionals placed during the 2026 mid-year Medical Internship and Community Service Placement cycle, comprising 161 Medical Interns and 464 Community Service Practitioners.

Why join the PSA?

As you embark on your journey in the Public Health Sector, ensure that you have the support and protection of South Africa's leading public-sector Union. The PSA is the largest politically non-affiliated public-sector Union, representing more than 250 000 public servants nationwide. As a PSA member, you will enjoy:

- Representation during grievances, disciplinary hearings, and labour disputes.
- Collective bargaining to improve salaries, benefits, and working conditions.
- Protection of your employment rights, including leave, pensions, medical aid, and fair labour practices.
- Access to experienced labour-relations specialists and dedicated workplace representatives.
- Free legal and workplace support, financial wellness services, and funeral assistance.
- Affordable insurance benefits and discounted holiday accommodation.
- A strong national support network with democratic member representation.

Join the PSA today

Do not wait until you experience a workplace challenge. Join the PSA from the start of your career and enjoy peace of mind knowing that your rights, career, and future are protected.
