Appointment of third Organising Marketing Officer and Departmental allocation

The PSA Johannesburg Provincial Office, representing more than 25 000 members in Gauteng, is pleased to announce the filling of the third Organising Marketing Officer (OMO) post. This appointment forms part of our ongoing efforts to strengthen capacity and enhance service delivery to members under the Johannesburg Office. Following the filling of this post, a review of departmental allocations was undertaken to ensure fair and equitable distribution, with the primary aim of improving accessibility and service to all members. Attached hereto is the departmental allocation template, which members are requested to consider when contacting Organising Marketing Officers for assistance and support.
