

Farewell to Ndhavuko Mathebula: Intern Labour Relations

The PSA Provincial Office in Limpopo bids farewell to Ndhavuko Mathebula, who joined the Union as a Labour Relations Intern on 1 August 2024 and concludes his internship on 31 July 2026.

During his tenure with the PSA, Ndhavuko made a meaningful contribution towards advancing the PSA's mandate of protecting and promoting the rights and interests of members. He assisted members in matters relating to grievances, enquiries, disciplinary hearings, arbitrations, and administrative functions, and also participated in Bargaining Chamber forums. His dedication, professionalism, and willingness to serve have earned him the respect and appreciation of colleagues and members.

The PSA is committed to youth employment and skills development by creating meaningful internship opportunities that provide young graduates with valuable practical workplace experience. The PSA is confident that Ndhavuko has gained a wealth of knowledge and skills during his time with the Union, which will serve him well in his future endeavours.

The PSA Provincial Office in Limpopo has commenced the process of reallocating matters previously attended to by Ndhavuko. Affected members will be informed accordingly.

The PSA extends sincere gratitude to Ndhavuko for his service and wishes him success as he embarks on the next chapter of his career. May his future be filled with growth, opportunity, and achievement.

The PSA will protect members' rights and promote their interests as practicing service excellence is an important value of the PSA. Members needing assistance with their cases can contact the PSA Provincial Manager in Limpopo at andry.mnisi@psa.co.za.
