PSA Provincial Office: Mpumalanga bid farewell to Intern, Joshua Mavimbela

On 31 July 2026, the PSA Provincial Office in Mpumalanga bid farewell to Joshua Mavimbela, who completed his two-year internship with the Union.

During his time with the PSA, Joshua distinguished himself as a dedicated, professional, and dependable team player. He consistently demonstrated a strong willingness to learn, took initiative in every task entrusted to him, and was always ready to assist colleagues and members with diligence, humility, and respect. His positive attitude, commitment to service excellence, and passion for continuous growth made him a valued member of the PSA Provincial Office. Joshua's contribution to the Office and the support he provided to members have left a lasting impression. His work ethic has been an inspiration to those who had the privilege of working alongside him.

As Joshua embarks on the next chapter of his professional journey, the PSA extends sincere gratitude for his dedicated service and wishes him every success, happiness, and fulfilment in all his future endeavours. The PSA is confident that he will continue to excel and make a meaningful impact wherever his career takes him.
