

FOR PSA MEMBERS: NATIONAL HEALTH LABORATORY SERVICES (NHLS)

30-03-2026

Make PSA Your Labour Home at NHLS

The Public Servants Association (PSA) represent more than 240,000 members across the public sector and proudly represents over 1,000 members at NHLS. As a growing union, the PSA is dedicated to safeguarding members' rights, improving working conditions, and providing valuable benefits to members.

PSA members enjoy a wide range of benefits, including but not limited to:

- Workplace support for labour disputes
- Representation in salary and benefit negotiations
- Protection of medical aid, pensions, and housing allowances
- Expert staff assistance for member structures
- Member-driven decision-making
- Proven success through professional, dedicated staff and trained shop stewards
- Free professional indemnity cover
- Access to PSA Club, insurance, funeral cover, and financial aid

Although the PSA is not currently admitted to the NHLS bargaining forum, it remains legally entitled to represent its members in all labour-related matters. The PSA is dedicated to protecting the rights and interests of its members at all times.

Not yet a PSA member? Join by visiting the PSA website or contact your nearest PSA Provincial Office for assistance. An application form is attached for your convenience.

Reuben Maleka
GENERAL MANAGER