PSA welcomes new appointments in North West Provincial Office

The office is pleased to officially announce and welcome the appointment of Mr Albert Ramahoshi as the new Labour Relations Officer and Ms Bonolo Monyatsi as the new Members' Affairs Coordinator for the North West Province.

Mr Albert Ramahoshi's appointment officially came into effect on 1 May 2026, whilst Ms Bonolo Monyatsi will officially assume her role from 1 June 2026. These appointments form part of the PSA's ongoing commitment to strengthening service delivery, enhancing member support, and advancing the interests of public servants across the province.

Mr Ramahoshi brings valuable experience, dedication, and commitment to labour relations and member representation. As members are aware, Mr Ramahoshi was previously on contract and will continue to be responsible for his duties as labour relations officer.

Members and stakeholders may contact Mr Ramahoshi on 063 400 1001 or albert.ramahoshi@psa.co.za for labour relations assistance and support.

The PSA also proudly welcomes Ms Bonolo Monyatsi in her role as Members' Affairs Coordinator. Her appointment reflects the organisation's confidence in her ability to strengthen member engagement, improve coordination within PSA structures, and ensure effective communication and support to members throughout the North West province.

The PSA believes that these appointments will contribute positively towards organisational growth, improved service delivery, and stronger support for members within the public service sector.
