

PSA SHOP STEWARD NEWSLETTER

Talk to your Union

The PSA values the contributions and feedback from its shop stewards as elected leaders of the Union.

Communication with you remains important as workplace representatives of the Union. For the PSA to enhance communication with shop stewards, you are requested to submit proposals on topics you would like the PSA to cover. You are also welcome to submit related content, where possible.

This will enable the Union to communicate issues that are relevant to you. Shop stewards have a huge responsibility in dealing with members directly, therefore it is necessary to be informed of issues affecting members to enable you to engage and inform them accordingly.

Topics can be submitted directly to the PSA Communication Section at communication@psa.co.za.

Inputs will be considered for publication in various for PSA publications, including PSA Link, PSA explains, PSA magazine, etc.

Please refer to the PSA's website (www.psa.co.za) for examples of these publications.

Also remember to submit social media contributions (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter) to communication@psa.co.za.

Thank you for enhancing the PSA's communication with members!
