MORE FINALISTS!

Congratulations to Thabo Miya (left) from the Johannesburg area of Gauteng and Gordon Vukeya (right) from Limpopo, who earned their places as third-round finalists in the PSA's 2014 Shop Steward of the Year competition.

The competition, which kicked off on 1 May, runs until the end of October 2014 with two monthly finalists (i.e. based on open entry) being selected from nominees submitted by PSA Provincial Managers.

The overall winner will be chosen from these finalists and will be announced in November 2014. Each finalist will win a R2 000-cash prize, a PSA-branded clothing item and a framed certificate.

The overall winner will also win a prize sponsored by Rennies Travel consisting of a local weekend holiday package for two people, with flights, accommodation (dinner, bed and breakfast) and car hire valued at R15 000!

The runner-up will receive a hamper sponsored by South African Airways and the third-prize winner will receive a Woolworths voucher.

Shop stewards entering the competition are judged on the following criteria: Recruitment results, involvement in union activities (interests), assistance to members (rights), administrative excellence, communication, and social responsibility participation. The overall winner will be chosen based on the results of the month in which he or she was chosen as a finalist.

Please refer to the official nomination form on page 2 of this newsletter for more information. The remaining closing dates for submission of nominations for the remainder of the competition are 28 August, 29 September and 29 October 2014.

Should you require more information, please contact your local PSA Provincial Manager.

Keep up the good work, and make sure that your entry is submitted via your PSA Provincial Office!
